

*Grieve not, nor keep my memory fresh
With flowers laid daily on my grave,
I am not there, 'Tis but the earthly shell,
My soul has gone to Him, who gave.*

*Hold me not forever dead,
For death is but a moment's passing
Then the light, and into God's kind hands.
I rest forever, from my Earthly flights.*

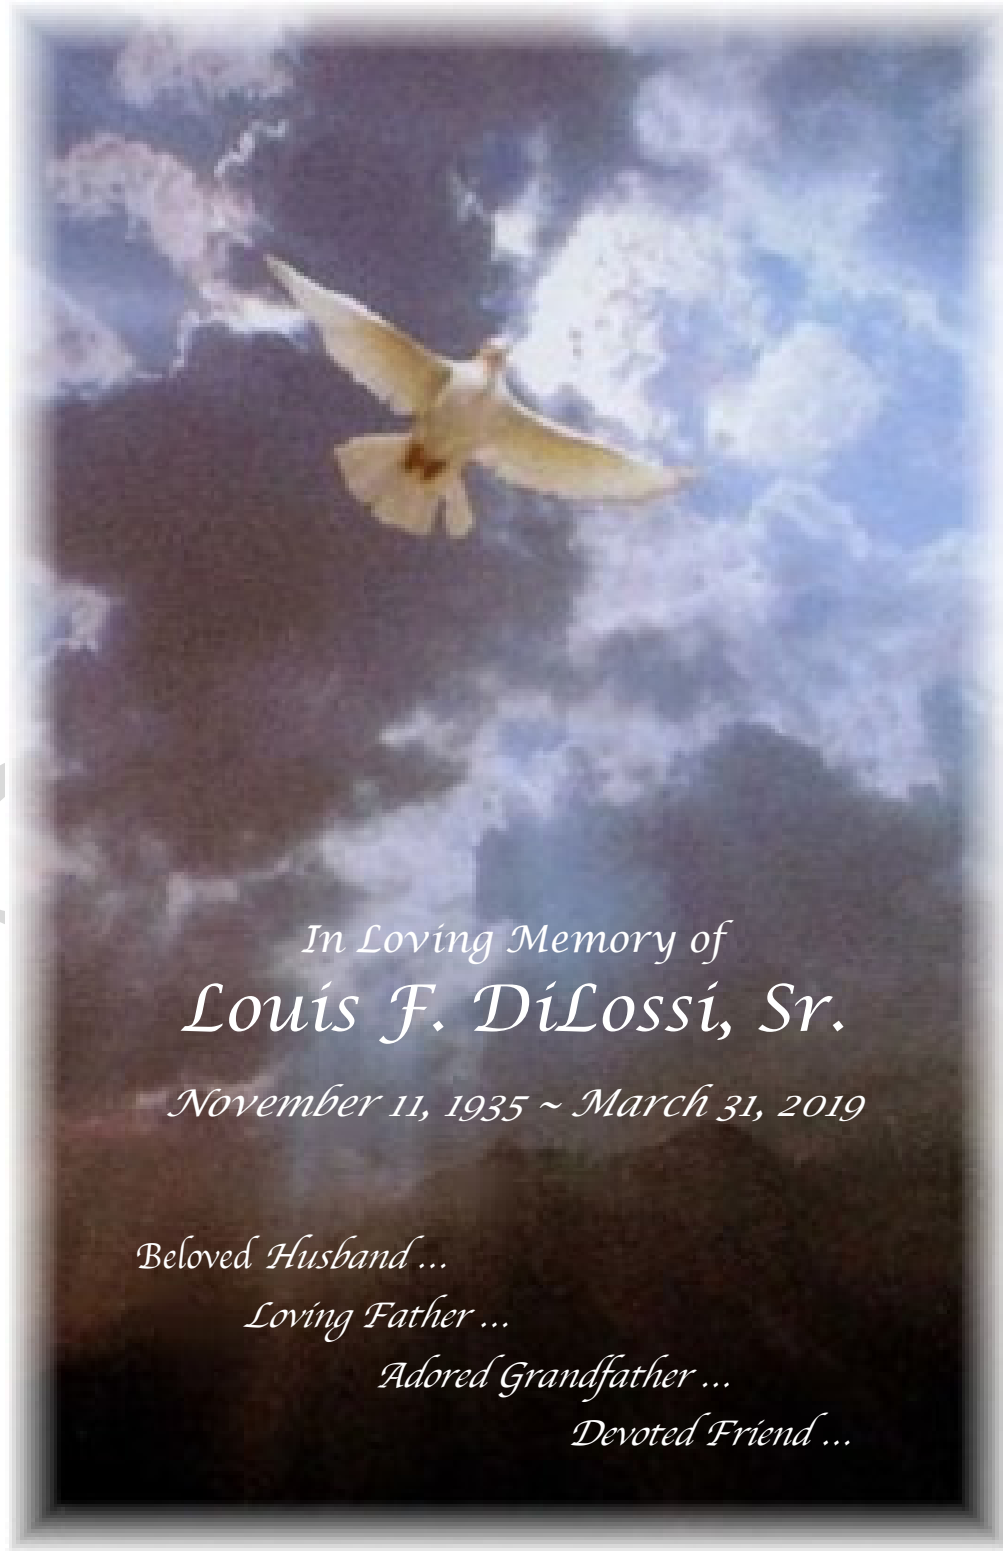

*But if on a summer's day
You hear a singing bird,
Or see a rose pearly with morning dew,
I bid you, think of me with smiling lips,
For such were mind, each day of life, with you.*
